FOREWORD

AS THIS, the first year of West Georgia College's history draws to a close, vivid recollections of events past are recounted. If, as future years come and go, this book causes one to relive his cherished experiences at W. G. C., our work has not been in vain.

DEDICATION

I. S. INGRAM

FOR HIS splendid direction, his zealous interest, his ceaseless effort, and his deeply appreciated co-operation, we, the staff, dedicate our initial undertaking to our beloved president, Irvine S. Ingram.

BASKET-BALL SUMMARY

Although this was the first year of basket-ball at West Georgia, the Braves held their own against other schools of its size. Each man on the teams did his part well in making a successful season.

TEAM

Hearn—An effective guard who fitted well with the W. G. C. first string.

"Billy" Driver—He awed his foes with his uncanny ability to score with one-handed shots.

Sam Fields, Captain—A dangerous shooting ace for long and short shots.

"Chick" Almon—A good passer and shooter with an unorthodox style as a feature of his brilliance.

Staples—A good guard and pivot man. He won for himself the center position.

J. Taylor—Fitted in as a good guard when Hearn was forced out in mid-season by illness.

Webb, N. Taylor, Glazier, Campbell and Williams did good work as substitutes for the W. G. C. Five.

ALL WEST GEORGIA STUDENTS GAIN FAME

FAMOUS SOPRANO TO SING HERE TONIGHT

Miss Eleanor Lee Brisendine, famous operatic soprano of the Chicago opera company, will be heard in a concert tonight at the city auditorium. She is well known in musical circles here, due to her well-received program last season.

Miss Brisendine will sing many request numbers of popularity. Among these will be "The Wise Man" and "My Nemesis" from the light opera "Nerts."

RENOWNED WRITER TO SPEAK TO CIVITANS

Mr. Jack Smith, well known sports writer for the NEW YORK TIMES, is to be the guest speaker at the noon meeting of the Civitan Club today. He is expected also to come out to West Georgia for the chapel hour.

MISS DORIS WEST AT THE ROYAL TODAY

After many attempted showings of her latest picture here, Doris West has finally consented to make a personal appearance with the showing of her latest offering "You Can Be Had."

JUDGE DAVID WALKER SITS ON CASE HERE

With repeated assertions of his guilt, Judge David Walker, sentenced his lifelong friend, Samuel Edgar Kelly, Jr., to a life imprisonment of wedded bliss. They both refused to disclose the name of the bride.

Mr. Kelly is well known among political circles for his radical, but very successful bill supporting the woman suffrage movement.

STEWART MARTIN DIES AFTER BRAVE ATTEMPT TO SAVE CHILD FROM DEATH

Mother Distraught

With many hearts in sympathy with her in her deep grief, Mrs. Stewart Martin today wept silently beside the tomb of her beloved husband, who met his death in the fire which swept New York's fashionable district two days ago.

Mrs. E. L. Lawrence and Mrs. K. Wilbanks, mother and grandmother of the rescued child were with Mrs. Martin.

Mayor Simonton is starting a movement to collect funds for a monument to this great hero.

Before the funeral rites, the body lay in state at the parlors of Rowe and Cruse where the remains were viewed by thousands of admiring people.
